SATURDAY, JULY 27. NOTES OF THE WEEK.

PROPOSED TREATY WITH JAPAN .- The Government has had under consideration for some time the pro-"KILAUEA" ject of negotiating a commercial treaty with Japan, and it is understood that the Hawaiian Consul at Yokohama has been in communication with the Japanese authorities with a view to that end. Some documents forwarded hence to the Consul, had failed to reach him, and the Government recently commissioned D. C. Waterman, Esq., to proceed to Japan by the first opportunity, to convey to the Consul copies of the missing documents, and also to compile jointly with the Consul, a report, says the Gazeile, " on the requirements and capabilities of the Japanese market; to ascertain what articles of export from these Islands will be likely to meet with favor, and to yield remunerative prices," etc., etc. It was the intention of Capt. Waterman to have embarked for China en route for Japan by the White Smallow, but that vessel went by the port on Wednesday evening, the master declining to stop. Since then, we learn that by the reall which arrived on Wednesday, the Government have received dispatches from Mr. Van Reed, the Consul, to the effect that the missing documents had come to hand, and that negotiations were in progress with the Japanese authorities by which he hoped to be able to forward the draft of a treaty by the next steamer. It has not yet transpired whether the Government have altogether abandoned the proposed mission, or whether it will be dispatched for the purpose of obtaining the commercial treaty above mentioned That a treaty of commerce with Japan may eventually prove advantageous to these Islands cannot be depied but years must clapse before our intercourse with that country will become frequent, reliable and profitable, unless the trans-Pacific steamers shall change their route and touch here. Meantime our nearest neighbors are our best customers, and it behooves us to cultivate the most intimate and amicable relations with them. Mr. Van Reed quotes the prices of sugar in Japan at 9 3-4 cents per pound for China No. 1, and 7 1-2 cents for No. 2, while the duties under the French and English treaties are stated as equivalent to 12 to 15 cents per 100 pounds.

A Honoraix Munden.-Last Tanday morning, one on the side of the neck, which would not necessarily have been fatal, and two others on the head, apparently given from behind, either of which, in the opinion of the Doctor, was sufficient to have caused instant death, as they penetrated the brain. Considerable testimony was taken at the inquest, but nothing was elicited to fix the crime upon any one, dthough circumstances point to the woman's husband as the perpetrator of the deed. His name is Kaleo, and he and his wife, whose name was Nuki, occupied a room in a house belonging to another married couple who also lived there. It was in testimony that Kaleo and the deceased had frequently quarreled during two years past, but had always got apparently reconciled again. On Monday evening, they were seen sitting together apparently very pleasantly, when the other inmates of the house retired to bed, and that was the last that was seen of Nuki alive. No noise was heard during the night, and the first intimation the family had of anything wrong was the finding of the body. It would seem that the woman went out to sleep in the open air, as sue had a blanket spread under her, and was partly covered with a quilt. An axe on which a piece of scalp with the hair attached, and smeared with blood, was found within a few yards of the body. Kaleo, the husband, not having been seen by any one since Monday evening, up to the time of the inquest, the Coroner's jury returned a verdict that in their opinion the deceased came to her death by blows inflicted with an axe in the hands of Kaleo. Diligent search was made for the supposed murderer, but it was not until Friday morning that his dead body was found, ed by Capt. J. H. Brown, and a verdict was returned in accordance with the facts. Kulco it is said, has for some time past shown occasional symptoms of insanity, and it was doubtless during one of these spells of craziness that he committed the double crime of murder and suicide. The body was buried beneath the mango tree on which it was found suspended. It is a coincidence to be remarked that near the THE CONCERT ON MONDAY EVENING. - Madame spot where these crimes occurred, a Chinaman killed d'Ormy's concert was a decided success. assuxurov, Jone 29th .- A dispatch from New Orleans states that Maximilian was condemned to death, and was shot June 19th. No particulars

It is believed that Junrez consented reluctantly to the execution of Maximilian. He informed the messenger of our Government that he was disposed e spare his life, but the pressure of the Mexican leaders and people was too great to be withstood. New ORLEANS, July 2d .- A Monterey letter says that previous to the execution of Maximilian he was stripped entirely naked, but Escobedo presented him with a shirt to cover his nakedness.

The Tribene says the shooting of Maximilian in

The Herald's special says Baron Magnan, the Prussian Minister, arrived at Queretaro on the day before the execution of Maximilian, and immediately telegraphed a formal protest to Juarez, which he received on the evening of the same day. The reply of Senor Lerdo de Tejada was telegraphed, saying that the President of the Republic was of the opinion that it was not possible to grant the pardon of Maximilian of Hapsburg consistently with the great consideration of justice and the necessity of insuring the future peace of the Republic. No authentic news has been received regarding the disposition of Maximilian's body.

New York, July 9th .- San Luis Potosi papers contain the correspondence between Juarez and Maximilian. The first letter from Maximilian, May 25th, asks that in case his counsel did not arrive in time, he be allowed the time necessary for his de fence. Juarez promptly replied that time would be allowed. The next is dated on the 27th. Maximilian asks that a decree be issued allowing big counsel to leave the City of Mexico, which was then under siege; also, desiring to speak personally with Juarez upon grave affairs, very important to the country. Junrez granted the first request, but declined an interview, but promised that everything fitting as to Maximilian's private affairs should be done.
